

Face to Face Interview Preparation Guide

Document Prepared by Kim Payton
Partner – Cutting Edge Connect

Job interviews can be stressful. The best way to reduce the stress is to be prepared. Interviewing is not something you do on a regular basis, but it is what the consultants at Cutting Edge Connect do every day. If you're like most professionals, you haven't spent a lot of time perfecting your interviewing skills. The job market is very competitive and you will not be the only qualified candidate interviewed for the position. The deciding factor may simply be the way you confidently present your skills and qualifications or could be your overall appearance and body language during the interview.

This guide will help you prepare for and succeed in the interview process. Take time to review the material in its entirety. First impressions cannot be changed, so make a great one!
